Owners of NKC licensed kennels may keep the kennel name as part of any name change by the new owner, for example, the breeder may name the puppy Sir Charles OF Whipporwill Kennel.

If the kennel is a registered ARHA kennel and you fully name the puppy, its name can never be changed. If you only wish to have the kennel name listed as part of puppy name only list the kennel on litter application, for example, Whipporwill Kennel 1 Whipporwill Kennel 2.

When registering a litter breeder must state on litter application: Litter from NKC licensed kennel (to be sure it will be recorded on litter paper of each puppy). At time of sale the new owner may request and be granted permission to leave off the prior kennel name. If ARHA, the puppy name cannot be changed.

The breeder or kennel owner agrees that NKC may give the kennel name and phone number to any person desiring to buy a puppy of listed breed.

The kennel license is valid for one year, and may be renewed as long as desired by kennel operator and approved by NKC. Either party may cancel kennel license at any time, without giving a specific reason.
